Report of Canadian Studies Association of Undergraduate Students – CSAUS, AUS Council 8 November 2017

Events since last report

- Fifth Executive Meeting was held: 2:00 P.M., Monday, 6 November – further preparation for trivia night and preparation for Exec profiles on MISC’s website.
- VP Academic attended AUS Council on 25 October

Upcoming

- VP Internal will attend AUS Council on 8 November
- Need to submit contract to Gert’s for trivia night, will follow up with AUS President re: status
- “Introducing the Executive” social media campaign to begin ASAP, includes introductions to members’ mandates, headshots, and biographical blurbs – looking to find a date in the next week or so to complete.
- Annual review of our constitution taking place in November – currently drafting a revised version, will submit to committee after finishing.
- Trivia night planning to be held on November 21 – open to all students, but emphasis for Canadian Studies/Québec Studies and Indigenous Studies
- CSAUS logo contest underway – waiting for a few more submissions before closing.
- Search for a VP Publications continues – re-sending application and may go to CANS 200 classes to emphasize.
- Looking to update the CSAUS website.

Next Meeting

- Sixth Executive Meeting TBC, during week of 20 November
- Priorities include: de-briefing from Trivia Night, ensuring Constitution is ready for submission to committee, begin journal preparation, planning upcoming events including Wine and Cheese and Meet the Profs/MISC event (TBC)

Respectfully Submitted,
Aidan Fehr, VP Internal
