Report of Canadian Studies Association of Undergraduate Students – CSAUS, AUS Council 10 January 2018

Events since last report

- CANS 200 Review Session held on December 15th – a lot more people showed up than expected, which will be taken under advisement for future events (we will try and get a better grasp on numbers so we aren't as overwhelmed)
 - Thanks to MISC for providing the pizza!
 - Spent $60 on drinks/snacks from Departmental budget
- VP External attended Publishing workshop on December 7th
- Two external editors recruited to help us with Canadian Content (CSAUS' journal), working to ensure French submissions are encouraged and published this year.
- CSAUS logo contest concluded – thanks to Brytan Mendes for the winning submission!

Upcoming

- Call for editors concluding mid-January – still looking for 1 or 2 more.
- Call for submissions opening ASAP, deadline for 1 February 2018
- Exec photos have been taken, “Introducing the Executive” social media campaign to begin ASAP, includes introductions to members' mandates, headshots, and biographical blurbs
- Annual review of our constitution taking place in February – currently drafting a revised version, will submit to council after finishing.
- Looking to update the CSAUS website.

Next Meeting

- Seventh Executive Meeting TBC, during week of 15 January
- Priorities include: de-briefing from CANS 200 Review Session, planning for Wine and Cheese, Canadian Content (Journal) preparation, Executive Campaign

Respectfully Submitted,
Aidan Fehr, VP Internal
