- Executives will be undergoing the AUS Equity and Consent training in the coming weeks.

IGSF

- Future Ecologies: Speculative Forms and Feelings taking place on February 23 at IGSF. This workshop explores speculation as what José Muñoz calls a world-making practice in art, media, literature and theory. Drawing on critical insights from feminist, decolonial, queer, Indigenous, and critical race theories, we will explore the affective force of imagination in creating social forms, through reading sessions, artist talks, and presentations and discussion.
