Report of the Quebec Studies Student Association
AUS Legislative Assembly Feb. 21, 2018

Departmental Updates

- We have been organizing Cine-Club for the past few weeks for courses in our department.
- We held a meeting two weeks ago to determine what events we should try to plan for the remaining of this semester

Upcoming Events

- We are in the process of deciding which events we can afford / offer to the McGill community and thinking of collaborating efforts with other departments to put on another event / organize an outing
- VP Finance and President will meet with AUS Finance on Tuesday to work out our budget for the semester.

President

- President spoke with welcome center at McGill to arrange next year's participation in the Quebec CEGEP student winter fair
- Arranged for the election of QSSA VP Internal
- Purchased snacks for the Cine-Club events
- Will continue to collaborate with team to increase student involvement in QSSA
- Attended and will continue to attend courses and speak with professors about presenting the association to their students

VP Finance

- VP Finance of QSSA will raise money through bake sales and movie nights in order to propose great activities related to Québec's culture to McGill students
- Meeting with VP Finance AUS Tuesday Feb. 20

VP External

- The QSSA will be continuing its communications with different Montréal organizations in order to eventually plan another event to link McGill to the greater community.
- The QSSA will be continuing to promote the association and the minor program to McGill students to help further educate the McGill community about where we are studying.

VP Internal

- The VP Internal will ensure the smooth functioning of the QSSA meetings and also the management of emails.
- She will ensure that the team is staying up to date with the events and other meetings the QSSA has planned for the next weeks.

VP Events

- The VP Events will continue to supervise future events organized by QSSA, such as eventual Quebec City Trip tentatively planned for this summer
- She will also continue to promote the events and fundraisers by emails and social media accounts

Respectfully submitted,
Olivia Kurajian, QSSA President
