

Report of the Classics Students Association (CSA)

Classics Students Association (CSA) Business

- The CSA hosted a successful “Samosa Sale” on Tuesday, March 20th. We sold out in under two hours! Thank you to all those who purchased samosas and to the members of the CSA Executive who tabled.
- The CSA co-hosted the “Montreal Inter- University Colloquium in Classics” with the “Concordia Classics Students Association” and the “U Montreal Classics Students Association” from Wednesday, March 21st till Friday, March 23rd. It was an extremely successful event and a huge thank you to all those who organized the event and to those who participated.
- Elections for the CSA’s Executive Officers (President, VP- Finance, VP- Internal, VP- Events (2 positions), VP- External, VP- Communications and Publicity and, VP- Academic) will take place on April 4th in Leacock 817.
- Our Executive has office hours! Anyone considering running for an elected position is strongly encouraged to come meet with our Executive Officers. Office hours take place on Mondays and our office (Leacock 629) is shared with the HSA. Our hours are;
 - 9:30- 10:30: VP- Internal (Neha Rahman), VP- Finance (Claudia Shek)
 - 10:30- 11:30: VP- Events (Marina Saunders and Courtney Marriott)
 - 11:30- 12:30: VP- Academic (Alexis Lemonde- Vachon)
 - 13:30- 14:30: VP- External (Chip Smith)
 - 14:30- 15:30: President (Daniel Whittle), VP- Communications and Publicity (Celia Taylor).
- The 2017/18 version of Hirundo, the CSA’s Journal will be officially released within the coming weeks! To celebrate the launch, the CSA will be hosting our annual winter Wine and Cheese on Thursday, April 5th in the RVC west lounge. Everyone is welcome!
- There were a few issues with apparel orders. Anyone who ordered CSA apparel will be contacted with the next few days about the issue.

Respectfully Submitted,
Chip Smith
VP- External, Classical Students Association