

Report of the Classics Students Association (CSA)

Classics Students Association (CSA) Business

- The CSA held our annual winter semester “Wine and Cheese” on Thursday, April 5th in the RVC West Lounge. This wine and cheese was to celebrate the launch of our Journal, Hirundo! It was extremely successful and was very well attended. Thank you to everyone who attended and to the events team for organizing yet another, successful wine and cheese!
- Congratulations to the editorial team of Hirundo on the launch of this year’s edition! Thank you to all their hard work over the year in order to have this year’s edition ready in time! A huge thank you to Ella Hartsoe, our Hirundo Editor in Chief for 2017/18. As well, huge congratulations to all those who had their work featured.
- The CSA held elections for the 2018/19 executive on Wednesday, April 4th. Congratulations to all those who were elected and thank you to all of those who ran for a position. Elections for the MAL positions will be held in the fall. The new executive is as follows:
 - President: Neha Rahman
 - Joint Vice President- Finance: Marina Martin and Georgina Jones
 - Vice President- Internal: Meghan O’ Donnell
 - Joint Vice Presidents- Events: Courtney Marriot and Avery Warkentin
 - Vice President- External Affairs: Sera Merker
 - Vice President Academic: Jeanne Savard- Dery
 - Vice President Communications and Publicity: Rachel Sutherland
- I will be transitioning the new Vice President- External Affairs, Sera Merker into the role over the next few days.

Respectfully Submitted,
Chip Smith
Outgoing VP- External Affairs, Classical Students Association