Events

- ❖ We are in high gear planning for CLAUSE, the Canadian Linguistics Annual Undergraduate Research Symposium, which will be held at Concordia this year, on March 16th
- ❖ We will be hosting a Beverage and Pizza Social in the month of February.
- ❖ In conjunction with the Concordia linguistics department, we will be hosting a free Python workshop for Linguistics students at both schools.
- ❖ We are in the midst of organizing keynote speakers for Future Week in late March.

Internal Affairs

- ❖ Our VP Academic has begun booking tutors and spaces for our midterm review sessions.
- ❖ Our VP Fundraising is working to correct the clothing order from last semester, which arrived with transcription errors, and also planning a series of samosa/bake sales for the semester
- ❖ We have struck a committee of undergraduates for our Departmental Awards, so that they can vote on candidates and give their recommendations to the department heads.

Respectfully Submitted,
