

Economic Student Association (ESA)

Eighth Report - January 11th, 2021

General Updates

- ESA is nearly done filling the vacancy for the VP Academic position
 - Final round of interviews will occur this week
- ESA Executive Team holding its weekly meetings on Thursday evenings this school year
- McGill Journal of Economics (MJE) 2021 team has begun to meet, with calls for submission beginning this month and first Op-Ed piece coming soon

Peer Tutoring

- ESA Helpdesk will have full operations for the Winter 2021 semester, start date coming soon
- Review sessions will be offered again at the semester's end, good feedback from Fall 2020 review sessions
- Students are welcome to reach out to any of the three tutors with questions in their core Economics courses any time before sessions begin as well!

Upcoming

- ESA looking into potentially holding some more academic and social events in the near future
 - Looking into some small fun events and some niche workshops and laid-back social events
- Portfolio teams will continue meeting regularly over Zoom during the Winter 2021 semester

Best regards,

Connor Hausmann
