Report of East Asian Studies Students' Association

General Updates

- The EASSA had two meetings since the last report, one on Jan. 30th and another of Feb. 7th
 - We are in the process of planning a panel discussion event with IDSSA
 - We are currently contacting faculty members in EAS to speak at the event, IDSSA will take care of all the logistics of the event
 - Our wine and cheese date is set for March 9th
 - Two of the execs, VP Finance and VP Academic, are going to attend server training on Feb. 20th in preparation for the event
 - Merch payment has been collected and order will be placed on Feb 10th
 - Delivery takes around three weeks from order date
- VP Internal, Hazel Berger, and I attended the department meeting on Jan 31st and we gave a report on how EASSA is doing
 - We had previously sent out a survey in our Listserv to collect student concerns and suggestions for the department
 - The feedback was given as part of our report and we also met with Livia Nardini from the department's administrative office on Feb. 4th to discuss it in more detail.
 - We also discussed the department's lack of communication with EASSA and ways we can improve it at the meeting with Livia.
